(c) whether it is also a fact that some organisation has urged Government to strongly take up the issue with European Union Commission for granting exemption ; and

(d) if so, what action Govem-ment propose to take in this regard ?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE) : (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The 15% tariff however, is not a new tax but the existing MFN (Most Favoured Nation) rate which applies to all countries exporting flowers to EU except least developed countries and those with whom special preferential bilateral Agreements exist.

(c) and (d) Government have received representations from exporters from time to time pressing for waiver of 15% tariff being imposed by the EU. Government's proposal for improvement in the EU's Generalised System of Preferences have been formally conveyed which includes a plea for duty reduction to Zero in the case of cut flowers. These suggestions were reiterated in the course of Indo-EU Joint Commission meeting held in October, 1994.
